PREMIER'S LONDON PARLEY.

BONAR LAW'S THORNY PROBLEM.

FRANCE'S QUID PRO QUO.

LONDON, December 10.

Although yesterday's conversations at the premier's conference in London were technically merely an exchange of views as a preliminary to the Brussels conference they were of the gravest character because a conference at Brussels is impossible unless a preliminary agreement is reached.

Secrecy is officially maintained regarding the nature of the discussions but well-informed quarters declare that they were of a very vigorous nature chiefly owing to the French demand for minimise or occupation of the Ruhr coalfield and cancellation of European inter-allied debts in return for the grant of a moratorium to Germany.

The Observer's diplomatic correspondent says that Mr. Bonar Law yesterday was faced by one of the most baffling problems that ever confronted any Premier, namely the alternative of refusing a proposal which would mean a European disaster or breaking with France. The correspondent adds that yesterday was one of the thorniest days since the armistice. Precisely because these crises have progressively worsened during the past four years it was recognised that a decision could no longer be postponed. The best that could be said of the discussions yesterday was that they were to continue and therefore there is still hope. It is noteworthy in this regard that there have been suggestions in the French press recently that France is willing to give way to a certain extent to the British viewpoint at Lausanne in return for a British concession on the French attitude in regard to the Ruhr.

THE GERMAN PROPOSALS.

LONDON, December 10.

Reuter learns from a well-informed quarter that the main proposals of the German note presented to the allied Prime Ministers this morning are as follows:—The German government intends to carry out the proposals contained in its note to the Reparations Commission on November 14 firstly by undertaking, if necessary, the stabilisation of the mark forthwith, utilising Germany's own resources in connection with it; secondly by substituting for current obligations under the Treaty of Versailles for the next few years internal and external loans, the proceeds of which will be paid over immediately to the Reparations Commission, except that part of the internal loan will be devoted to Germany's own needs, especially the stabilisation of the mark. It is suggested that the arrangement should cover at least two years but not more than five years.

A Belgian source confirms the above and says the external loan will be three milliards of marks. The internal loan has not been fixed amount but half of it up to milliard and a half is to be devoted to reparations and half to the stabilisation of the mark.

GERMAN NOTE FALLS FLAT.

LONDON, December 8.

Signor Mussolini interviewed by Reuter said that the allies were united in rejecting the German reparations note. Signor Mussolini said the note made an entirely negative impression on the conference and mentioned his own plan submitted to the conference favoured reduction of the total reparations "if our debts are reduced".

He said there was no question of "reparation" of debts. His proposals were for guarantees solely economic and productive. He was optimistic in regard to the outcome of the deliberations.

CONFERENCE MAY RESUME TO-DAY.

LONDON, December 10.

The allied Premiers in London studied the German note and allied debts and the question of guarantees during a three hours session in the afternoon and will probably meet again to-morrow, prior to which the British cabinet will meet to discuss the progress of the negotiations. It is understood that the German proposals are largely based on the report of the inter-allied commission of investigation in Berlin.

CARRIED OVER THE BORDER.

CHINESE OFFICER'S EXJOUR.

On Saturday afternoon, the police searched second class passengers on the 3 o'clock express from Canton just after it had passed the Shatin Station, and one man was found to be in possession of a Mauser pistol. The man, who was wearing ordinary clothes and carrying an overcoat, was taken to the Police Station and kept in custody all night. This morning he was produced before Mr. J. B. Wood, and in answer to a question as to the charge, said that he was an suspended by a piece of ribbon, he said he was an officer in the Chinese Army. He had intended to travel in Chinese territory only, but missed his station and was carried over the border. The hearing of the case was fixed for 2.15 to-morrow afternoon.

AMERICAN STUDENTS FOR FRANCE.

CLEMENCEAU HELPS THE SCHEME.

WASHINGTON, December 10.

In memory of his student days in America, Mr. Clemenceau has devoted the proceeds of his lecture tour to the American field service fund which was organised at the end of the war for the purpose of sending a number of American students to French universities equal to the number of French students in American universities. Hitherto only half a million dollars has been subscribed out of the three and a half million needed for the project.

DUKE OF ABERCORN APPOINTED.

LONDON, December 8.

ATTACKS ON ALLIED MISSIONS.

GERMAN REPLY TO ALLIES' NOTE.

PARIS, December 10.

The German reply to the allied note on the incidents at Passau and Ingolstadt claims that the German Government alone is qualified to present the apology demanded. It states that it is impossible to dismiss the burgomasters but confirms the German Government's willingness to pay the million gold marks demanded.

"ALL SIKHS ARE LIARS."

LAWYER'S FAUX PAS.

SHANGHAI COURT INCIDENT.

Capt. E. I. M. Barrett, Asst. Commissioner of Police (S.I. 18), attended before Mr. King and Magistrate Loh at the Shanghai Mixed Court last week to apply for an order that Mr. R. S. Haskell, an American advocate, should withdraw in open court certain remarks which he made recently about Sikh policemen. While defending two men found guilty of complicity in a stabbing affair, Mr. Haskell said Capt. Barrett had been quoted in the press as stating that "all Sikhs were liars."

"It is not fair," said Capt. Barrett, "because one man may have told a lie, that the whole Sikh nation, of which there are millions should be branded as liars. These remarks have given grave offence to the whole Sikh community."

From the record of the case Mr. Haskell was stated to have quoted similar remarks by a previous British Assessor, Mr. Grant Jones. "If he had ever made such statements," Capt. Barrett remarked, "they were never brought to the notice of the police. Had the police heard of them, exactly the same course would have been taken as on this occasion. Mr. Haskell had however apologized and had asked him (Capt. Barrett) to convey the police and the Court this apology. He had also expressed his willingness to withdraw these reflections."

Mr. King said he quite clearly remembered the incident. Mr. Haskell, who appeared for the defence, moved for a dismissal on the grounds that the evidence against his clients depended on the integrity of S.P.O. 278. Mr. Haskell said that, as Mr. Grant Jones had once asserted, that all Sikhs were liars, the Court should not find the prisoners guilty. Sub. Insp. Mackenzie, who had charge of the case, protested against Mr. Haskell's allegation, while the Bench fully upheld police evidence, being satisfied as to the guilt of the two men and sentenced them accordingly.

The incident seems to be of so little importance that the Court does not consider it necessary to take any further action," said the Assessor, "particularly in view of the fact that the prisoners were sentenced immediately after Mr. Haskell's uncalculated remarks. As Mr. Haskell has apologized to Capt. Barrett and asked that his apology be conveyed to the Sikh police, there is no need for further action."

A TRAMCAR TRAGEDY.

[By Norman Forsyth in the Sydney Sun.]

He was a very spruce and properly dressed young man. He boarded the Bondi tram with an air of complacent satisfaction. The compartment was full, but a lady obligingly moved the little girl on to her lap, thus giving him a seat. This he occupied with a smile of thanks, then carefully pulled his trousers legs up so as not to "bag" the knees. He flicked a speck of dust from his sleeve, and in so doing saw with horror that the child, whose seat he had taken, was industriously chewing some fearful kind of yellow toffee.

The little girl evidently mistook his look as a preliminary to friendship. She stretched out a sticky hand to grasp his leg, and with the other hand removed a lump of toffee from her mouth, and, smiling, offered it to him. Luckily, the mother noticed her child's occupation before any damage was done. The scolding she administered had the effect of manufacturing a few lusty yells, but as soon as her attention again wandered forward came the hand once more.

The young man's leg retreated till it collided with that of a fellow passenger. The horror of the menacing "paw" caused him to move in self-defence. He diverted it from its course by grasping it gingerly by the wrist between finger and thumb. He cursed volubly under his breath, and rising, despite the mother's flow of apologies, changed to the next compartment. Once more seated, he brushed the dirty mark from his trouser-leg and congratulated himself that it was no worse. After a time the little girl ceased to cry, and the following dialogue drifted back to his ears:—

"I want ma lollie."
"But you ate it all, my dear!"
"No, I never—it's the odder half—that my man took it!"
"Hush, dear! You ate it; you know you did."
"No, I never. I had a big bit over, an' I left it on the seat. The nasty man took it!"
With horror imprinted on his countenance, the man's hand sought the rear of his pants.

"TRUTH JUSTICE PUBLIC SERVICE"

HONGKONG, MONDAY, DEC. 11, 1932.

HOW LONG?

Human memory is proverbially short. Already the names are forgetting the horrors of the war period. Only the other day, just before his eclipse, a shiftless politician like Lloyd George was able with a few dramatic heroics to inspire thousands to volunteer for active service and move millions to give their moral support in a quarrel born not of national honour, not even of national necessity, but solely of clumsy political intrigues. Many people have only to hear a military band and their hearts glow with the glamour of war and mark the word—the "glory." However, what the war to end wars has so far failed to achieve, the peace to end peace (as it has been neatly called) bids fair to accomplish. If the tragedy of the actual conflict itself has not finally cured humanity of its fatal weakness for war, then the even more sordid tragedy of the grim aftermath is surely showing the world it must renounce this insane folly for ever. The war had its grand moments, its stirring deeds which often gripped the imagination and roused the noblest emotions. The bankrupt peace, on the other hand, has been, from the very moment the vindictive Clemenceau treaty was engineered, one long succession of dispiriting dissensions and unrelenting shocks with a general background of hate and ruin. There has been no glamour about the peace, no glory. Even the little progress that has been made towards saner conditions, made in the face of almost insuperable odds, now seems to have been lost. The Washington Treaty, acclaimed the world's last hope, has been practically killed. France is making more mischief with Germany, the Powers obstinately persist in their idiotic Russian policy, the South American disarmament hopes have been wrecked, and the war debts folly continues. The outlook is indeed black. But there is still a gleam of hope. This unhappy aftermath will remove the last illusions about war. And when the statesmen find they can no longer trifle with a nation's fate, they will have to cease the intrigues which made Saturday the "thorniest day since the armistice," and take common action to save the world from the disaster which their present course will surely bring.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Kim Chang, the mayor-designate of Canton, is expected to formally assume his new office at noon to-day, succeeding acting mayor Wu Fie.

His Excellency Mgr. Celsio Costantini, Papal Delegate to China, is now staying at the Catholic Mission in Canton where, on his arrival, he was given a hearty welcome by the Catholic community.

Four armed men raided the Samtsatze Temple, at Simshulpo at 6.45 p.m. yesterday. They bound and gagged the temple keeper and his family, and ransacking the place, stole jewellery, money and clothing worth $300.

The "Titania" jazz quartette will play at the Palace Hotel, Kowloon, to-morrow night when there will be dancing from 9 p.m. During the evening an exhibition of classical dancing will be given by Mr. J. Thomas and Miss E. Makarova.

An earth quake employed on the new reclamation, in Shanghai Street, Mongkok was crushed to death by a locomotive engine yesterday after noon. In spite of the fact that the red flag was hoisted and the whistle had been sounded, the deceased tried to run across the rails with two baskets of earth, and was knocked down by the engine as it turned a bend.

According to persons closely in touch with the local authorities there is nothing to suggest the Canton Times in the Hongkong Chinese press reports that General Chen Chiung-ming is about to take leave of absence from Canton, and that Provisional Civil Governor Chen Chik Yue may be the full change of the Canton Government and introduce gambling again.

"GRANDMA'S BOY."

NEW HAROLD LLOYD COMEDY.

A new book by H. G. Wells or a new play by J. M. Barrie is not looked forward to with a keener nor more pleasant sense of anticipation than, in the moving picture world, is a new comedy by Harold Lloyd. Local cinema patrons, therefore, may be excused a little excitement over the news that for a whole week, beginning to-day, the bespectacled comedian's latest five part feature is to be shown at the Coronet.

Entitled "Grandma's Boy" it shows Harold Lloyd in a role vastly different from those he has portrayed in most of his previous pictures. He figures as a young man who has all his life been a slave to fear. How he overcomes his cowardice with the wise help of his little old grand mother, and eventually, as the Americans say "beats everyone to a frazzle" in true Harold Lloyd style makes a picture which reveals the droll comedian at his very best.

MEDICINE SHOP BLAZE

A fire broke out on the first floor of No. 92, Bonham Strand at 3.45 this morning. The floor which was occupied by a wholesale dealer in Chinese medicine, was burned out, causing damage to the extent of $2,000. The fire brigade was early on the scene, and turning their attention to the other floors of the house, managed to save them. The whole building is covered by insurance to the extent of $61,000. The fire was supposed to have originated through the overheating of a drying stove which set fire to the herbs.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

During the week-end two cases of diphtheria and three of enteric fever were reported.

Kashio, the famous Japanese tennis player, meets N. S. Kwong on the C. R. C. courts on Wednesday at 3.30 p.m.

Colonel John F. Stevens, Chief of the Inter-Allied Technical Board on the Chinese Eastern Railway, has arrived at Shanghai. He is stopping at the Astor House.

Dr. J. W. Jamieson, C. M. G., British Consul General at Canton, after a vacation trip to Shanghai and Peking the last few weeks, is now again at his office at Shamen.

There will be a Tea-Dance at the Helena May Institute on Thursday next, December 14th at 5.30 p.m. Tickets, one dollar each, should be obtained beforehand from the secretary.—Adv.

A Singapore paper states that Mr. Blackader, first officer of the str. "Robert Dollar," has been found dead in Marseilles harbour, the circumstances pointing to a fall close to the water's edge.

Mr. Maxwell M. Hamilton, of the Consular Service of the United States of America, has just been assigned to Canton as vice-consul and arrived there last week. Mr. Hamilton served at the American Legation at Peking as student interpreter during the last two years.

A Royal Marine named Field of H. M. S. "Tamar," has died in hospital, after taking a dose of carbolic acid, alleged to have been self-administered. No details of the affair are available, and the police have not yet received any report. The deceased was 29 years of age and had been on the station for about a year.

Referring to the death of Mr. T. A. Gubbay from heart failure on board the s.s. "Nagasaki Maru," the Singapore Free Press says a wire was received by the N. Y. K. from the relatives of the deceased to embalm the body and send it to Hongkong, but after consultation with Mr. N. N. Adie, a first cousin of the deceased, the burial took place at Singapore on November 20th.

As the 7.30 a.m. train to Canton was preparing to leave Tsimshatsui Station, a Chinese was observed proceeding lazily through the grill towards the platform. He was stopped by Mr. Neville of the Chinese Maritime Customs, but refused to submit to a search and struggled frantically, drawing Mr. Neville's white scarf. Eventually he was overpowered and a Mander and 100 rounds of ammunition were fired tied to his right hip. He was charged before Mr. J. R. Wood this morning and remanded until 2.30 to-morrow afternoon.

ARBITRATION DISPUTE.

RESPONDENTS' ARGUMENT.

The case of H. M. H. Nemazeu and the Yu Fong Steamship Co. in which the former is appealing against an enforcement of an arbitration award made by the Chief Justice in favour of the latter, was resumed at a sitting of the Full Court this morning.

The presiding judges were the Chief Justice (Sir William Rees Davies, K.C.), Mr. Justice Skinner, Turner of Shanghai and Mr. Justice Gompertz.

Mr. Nemazeu was represented by Mr. F. C. Jerkin and Mr. Eldon Potter appeared on behalf of the Steamship Co.

The chief point of appeal by appellants' counsel was that he was entitled to set off the award, by a cross-claim and he proceeded to establish his case on those grounds.

The argument for respondent was put forward this morning but before Mr. Potter gave an analysis of his side of the case Mr. Justice Gompertz opened by explaining that while he (Mr. Potter) had the arbitration decision in his favour it did not carry him all the way for an enforcement and execution and the judge went on to show how anomalies might arise as to the validity of the award.

Mr. Potter's whole contention in his defence was that the Arbitration Act had given respondents an award which was the status of judgment. At the time of going to press, Mr. Potter was still endeavouring to prove the validity of the Arbitration award.

"THE TEMPEST"

When we turn to Shakespeare's handling of "The Tempest" we first admire that which all must admire, the enchantment wherein he clothes the poetic feeling wherewith he suffuses it. Magic and music meet in "The Tempest" and are so wedded that none can put them asunder.

"The Tempest" accepts and masters an extreme technical difficulty. No one can read Shakespeare's later plays in block without recognising that the subject which constantly engaged his mind towards the end or mistakes of one generation is the young love of the children and in their promise. This is the true theme of "Pericles," "Cymbeline," "The Winter's Tale," "The Tempest" successively. But the process of reconciliation—especially when effected through the appeal of sons and daughters—is naturally a slow one, and therefore extremely difficult to translate into drama; which handles the two hours' traffic of our stage, and therefore must almost necessarily rely on the piling of circumstances and character up in one crisis and its swift possible resolution.

The time supposed to be occupied by the action of "Pericles" is about sixteen years. "The Winter's Tale" has an interval of about sixteen years between its third and fourth acts. In "The Tempest" Shakespeare triumphantly does the trick: the whole action of the play, with the whole tale of ancient wrong, unfolded, the whole company of sinners and injured gathered into a knot, the whole machinery of revenge converted to forgiveness—all this is managed in about three hours of imagined time, or rather, more than the time of the actual representation on the stage.

FOOTBALL.

SATURDAY'S GAMES AND RESULTS.

FIRST DIVISION.

POLICE v. DURBAN.

Played on the St. Joseph's ground, and resulted in a draw of two goals all, after the Police had the majority of the play. The latter were even leading by two goals up to ten minutes of time, but after that they dropped off and the Sailors managed to equalize. Johnson was responsible for the Police's goals in the first half, and the teams crossed over at this score.

In the second half McEwen spoilt a good chance of increasing the score by handling in front of goal, and play was transferred to the other end where the Sailors were awarded a penalty for a foul by Post. Darlington scoring from the kick. Later Swan was pulled up for carrying and a further goal scored on the left but McWalter managed to get the ball away, at the other end Watson missed an easy chance. Yeoman was responsible for the Sailors' second goal just on time. Referee, Mr. Collins.

R.G.A. v. TITANIA.

Played on Sookumpoo "A" ground and resulted in a win for the Depot ship by 4 goals to none. The first half was very evenly contested, the Gunners playing with ten men for the first ten minutes. The Sailors tried out two new players and these are a great asset to the team, their centre forward being an especially good man. The interval arrived with the score sheet blank.

Within five minutes of the restart the Sailors were three goals up, Grace (2) and Bradshaw being responsible. A few minutes before time Grace added the fourth and the Gunners failing to reply the game ended as stated. Referee, Mr. Holland.

CLUB v. "HAWKINS."

Played on the Chinese ground, the Sailors running out winners by the old goal in three. The Club were the first to score, Forsyth beating Hooper within a few minutes from the start. Play continued fast and both ends were visited in turn. The Club had a chance to increase their lead but Bagg muffed it when well placed. Half time score—Club 1 "Hawkins" 0. From the restart the Club got away but offside against Bagg saw a goal scored by Valentine de laudably. From a corner came the "Hawkins" equalizing goal. Osborne heating in. The Club got away from the kick but a good move was again spoilt by offside and play was transferred. Rodgers saved a hard drive from Osborne but a few minutes later from a corner kick Osborne netted, what proved to be the winning goal, time arriving soon after. Referee, Mr. Tyldenley.

KING'S v. KOWLOON.

Played at Sookumpoo, Kowloon started the game facing the sun and the Soldiers were soon pressing, but the Kowloon defence managed to keep them out for some time until a corner against Wheeler saw Scott place a fine kick in front of goal, which Jones turned into the net. Just before the interval Dyer increased the score after some good work on the right wing and half time arrived with the King's leading by 2 goals to none. In the second half although the King's had the majority of the game they could not increase their score, bad shooting being responsible, and the game ended in a win for the King's with the half time score unaltered. Referee, Mr. Williams.

"AMBROSE" v. SOUTH CHINA.

Played on Navy "A" ground the "Ambrose" running out winners by two goals to one. The early portion of the first half saw both ends visited in turn, but neither set of forwards looked dangerous. Midfield play followed until Chan So, receiving, sent in Chan Yeung-shan who beat Coysh with a fast low shot. From the kick "Ambrose" got away and the equalizing goal came a few minutes after, Edmunds being responsible. Half time score—"Ambrose" 1, South China 1. The Sailors had most of the play in the second half, the Chinese attack failing to get past the "Ambrose" defence, and in consequence the former's defence had plenty to do. After about fifteen minutes play the Sailors, through Hood, scored the winning goal. There are likely to be some squabbles as to the conduct of some of the Chinese spectators at this match for I am told that they refused to get behind the touch line until forcibly put there by the Police. The start

CHEFALO-PALERMO CO.

MYSTIFYING NIGHT AT THE THEATRE.

Chief-all-o would appear to be the right name for the leading member of this energetic body of illusionists, dancers, and magicians for there is ever the merry quip and gay banter with almost every act done, and not a few in the audience, in the language of the day, have their legs pulled, to their own amusement and that of the audience. "The quickness of the hand deceives the eye" was the slogan of the old-time conjurer who produced rabbits from old top-hats and handkerchiefs from the emptiness of space. Chefalo does all that, but goes one better and produces veritable farmyards from boxes that had nothing in them, whilst his stage equipment for the performance of his numerous feats of mysteries—which had they been done in an earlier age would have earned for him fire and brimstone, is a feature in itself. The succession of "simple" tricks, rapidly done and some times "explained," is bewildering. Certainly too many for detailed description. They culminated in the act of sawing through a lady, which in spite of the surveillance of a committee of inspection from the audience, baffled detection. The lady is bound and then placed in a box previously opened to view; the box is closed and then seen in two—a formidable saw being used in the process. There is no blood and the lady emerges, still bound, but unharmed. We do not recommend this trick to would-be conjurers. The old top-hat and wand is much safer. Chefalo did some wonderful things with a number of iron rings, borrowed some jewellery from the audience and made it disappear into a box suspended in mid air; did tricks with cards and many things which "no fellah can understand."

A ball on a brass stand was made to answer questions and gave more or less valuable information to lady members of the audience. That and much more Chefalo did in part one of the programme. In part two, Magdalena Palermo palermed (the nearest we can get to palmed) off a few things in the "this is quite easy when you know how to do it" manner, and seemed to follow each trick with a change of costume, the said costumes being very pleasing to the eye. On the top of all this Miss Dot Kaye gave a medley of English dances and did a waltz with Chefalo that had about it a certain amount of originality. Its adoption in Hongkong would be another excellent reason for the enlargement of the City Hall. Miss Palermo gave a Spanish dance and snapped the castanets in true Sevillian manner. An Argentine Tango proved but another vehicle by which this lady and the irrepressible Chefalo proved their versatility. But laughter reigned supreme when the "consulting committee" who volunteered their services on the stage were made to do things they never intended, thanks to the effective use of a magic stick. It was funny in the extreme. Chefalo and his conjudors will mystify and amuse during the week.

of the game was delayed in consequence. Referee, Mr. Smith.

SECOND DIVISION.

Playing with only ten men for the first half, the Police suffered defeat at the hands of St. Joseph's by 5 goals to 0.

KOWLOON v. KING'S.

The King's had a field day at Kowloon scoring no less than 6 goals and the Kowloon team failing to reply.

"MARAZION" v. UNITED.

This was a very even game and the score of three all was as good a result as any.

"HAWKINS" v. "DURBAN."

Another high scoring match, the Flagship netting seven times and the Durban replying once.

R.G.A. v. "TITANIA."

At Sookumpoo this was a very even game. The Sailors should have at least drawn, and had hard luck in not doing so. Result: "R.G.A." 1, "Titania" 0.

SOUTH CHINA v. "AMBROSE."

The Chinese won this match by the old goal in three, the Auxiliaries scoring their first goal in League football.

"AMBROSE" v. "WARDERS." Played on Navy "B" ground and ended in a win for the Sailors by two goals to one.

BIG CANTON FIRE.

OVER 150 HOUSES GUTTED.

THREE LIVES LOST.

DAMAGE CLAIMS REPORTED $1,000,000.

CANTON, Dec. 11.

Canton's Western Suburb has suffered another disastrous fire. This blaze, which broke out in the early hours of Saturday morning, covered seven streets (some parallel to one another and others running crossways), gutted 150 houses and caused three deaths.

The fire originated in the 2nd section 9th. Police district No. 24 Tuck Hing Street. Spreading with great rapidity along the street its progress was unchecked and block after block became involved. The fire fighters, with primitive equipment and hampered by low water pressure could not stop the flames. Within a short time Luen Hing, Hing Loong, Tang Man, Sap Sam Hong, Yung Kwong and Sun Koy streets were alight.

A few years ago, one or two of these streets together with other parts of the Western Suburb were involved in a double calamity, the salient features of which were a flood reaching over first-floor levels, a fire originating (with the streets full of water) in the kerosene and firecracker streets, and simultaneous collapse of blocks of houses.

On Saturday morning it was feared that with the buildings being so dry and a strong wind blowing, the firecracker and kerosene streets might again be involved. In close proximity is Sap Pat Poo and Sap Chut Poo where Canton's biggest business houses and emporiums are situated. If these two streets had been burned down, the damage would have been enormous. As it is, the insurance underwriters are expecting to pay about $1,000,000 in claims.

The casualties occurred in the house opposite the fruit shop where the fire originated. It was about half past one when an alarm was raised and the daughter-in-law of the fruit shop master who lived in the house opposite his premises was cut off at the door by flames which had enveloped the staircase. She perished with her two small daughters and their charred remains were later recovered. Not till late in the day was the area cut off and the adjoining streets saved. As the houses were not very substantial most of them were completely gutted.

STOLEN DOG STORY.

A rather unusual case of theft was heard by Mr. R. E. Lindell this morning. The subject of the charge was a bull terrier and the defendant was a street coolie living in a coolie house at No. 5, Sai Street. His arrest followed a visit to the house by a Chinese detective in search of illicit opium. The detective found the carcass of a dog in a basket in the kitchen. It was cut in sections and dressed ready to be cooked for food. He enquired who had slaughtered the dog and some of the other coolies pointed out the defendant. At the police station defendant said he had found the dog on the Praya, but denied that it was wearing a collar. The detective was sent back to the house and returned with a collar, the number on which corresponded with a licence taken out by Lieut. White of the King's Regiment. Lieut. White was sent for and identified the carcass as that of his bull terrier. Sentence of three months' jail was passed.

Com. G. H. Hayes on the fourth green.

Col. C. W. Davy and Major H. G. Gandy beat D. J. Cuthill and H. U. Ireland at the 37th hole.

G. W. Sewell and G. H. Wilson beat Geo. Hogg and S. S. Church 3 and 2.

"SUI AN" ENQUIRY.

C. S. P. GIVES EVIDENCE.

The "Sui An" piracy Commission have not as yet completed the evidence of their enquiry as at this afternoon's sitting four other witnesses were examined, the evidence dealing chiefly with the piracy regulations from the police point of view.

Mr. E. D. C. Wolf, Captain Supt. of Police, was questioned at length on the regulations as they applied to the "Sui An" at the time of the outbreak. The chief points of his evidence dealt with the arms, baggage and searching regulations. He was perfectly satisfied, he said, that the searching of baggage was most efficient and pointed out that since the piracy regulations were introduced in 1914 only two boats have been pirated. He continued to say that the "Sui An" had been inspected by the police but even if it had not he would not have been unhappy as the captain of the "Sui An" was one of the best the police had known and they were satisfied with the way in which he looked after his guards. He was of the opinion that the pirates did not intend to hold up the ship for what they wanted from the passengers but because of the information they had received that money was on board, and it was in consequence of that, that they made the attack.

DANGEROUS INSTRUMENT.

FILIPINO MUSICIAN JAILED.

A Filipino named Agil-o M. Sison, an unemployed ship's musician, was charged before Mr. R. E. Lindell this morning with the unlawful possession in Nathan Road, Kowloon yesterday, of a revolver and five rounds of ammunition.

Defendant, who was arrested by Sergt. Stinson on information, said that the contraband belonged to a man employed on the "President Jackson," who wanted to trade it with him for the suit of clothes he was wearing. This he (defendant) refused to do. Afterwards he met a Portuguese who wanted to buy a revolver, so he went on board and took the revolver ashore to show it to the would-be purchaser. He was on his way to the Portuguese man's house when he was arrested.

Sentence of six months' jail was passed.

HONGKONG DEFENCE.

TWO NEW WARSHIPS.

H. M. S. "Diomedes" (Captain G. Hopwood C. B. E.) and H. M. S. "Petersfield" (Commander A. S. May O.B.E., M.V.O.) are two new warships which arrived in Hong Kong harbour on Saturday morning. The former vessel is a light cruiser of the same type as the "Despatch" and the "Durban" and is replacing three older vessels: the "Cairo," "Curlew" and "Colombo" while H. M. S. "Petersfield" takes the place of the yacht "Alicia" which has gone home for disposal. Commander May has had a wide and varied career with the Grand Fleet having held the appointment of Senior Lieutenant during the war and eventually graduating to the post of Junior Commander of the "Valiant." He has also served as an assistant to the Director of Naval Ordnance at the Admiralty.
